TERPS TAKE ON HAWKEYES IN B1G SECOND ROUND ...

- Maryland faces 9th-seeded Iowa on Wednesday morning in the Big Ten Tournament second round at the United Center after a wire-to-wire win over Oregon on Tuesday. The game will tip at 12:00 PM ET (11:00 AM CT) and will be streamed on Peacock. Legendary Voice of the Terps Johnny Holliday will call the action for the Maryland Sports Radio Network alongside Chris Knoche.

TERPS VS. HAWKEYES ...

- The two teams split the season series this year as each protected their home courts. Maryland won the most recent meeting 77-70 in College Park behind 24 points from Andre Mills and 19 from Diggy Coit.
- This will be the first meeting between the two teams in the Big Ten Tournament.

FIRST ROUND NOTES ...

- Maryland held Iowa without a field goal for the first 11:14 of yesterday's game and held the Ducks to just 12 first half points - the fewest allowed by the Terps in an opening stanza of a conference tournament game since surrendering just 13 points to NC State in the 1982 ACC Quarterfinals.

#MILLSMAFIA ...

- Andre Mills has been on a tear of late averaging 20.3 points in the last nine games thanks to 45.3 percent shooting from the floor and 39.4 percent from beyond the arc (26-of-66). In the last 14 games, the redshirt freshman has averaged a team-best 17.5 points per game shooting 46.1 percent (83-of-180) overall and 40.2 percent (35-of-87) from deep. That stretch was highlighted by his career-high 39 points at Northwestern and 30 points against No. 11 Illinois.
- Mills' 39 points tied as the most by a Maryland freshman since Diamond Stone scored 39 against Penn State in 2015 (which is the most by any Terp freshman) and was just the fourth time a Terp freshman has surpassed 30 points in a game since 1994. Mills scored over half of Maryland's points at Northwestern and tied for 10th-most in a game by any Terp in program history.
- He was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week with his 39 point game at Northwestern followed by a 21-point outing in the win over Washington where he scored all seven of Maryland's points in the final moments.
- Against Illinois, he became just the second Maryland freshman, alongside Joe Smith in 1993-94, to have a pair of 30-point games in their rookie campaigns.
- Mills and Illinois' Keaton Wagler are the only two Big Ten freshmen this year to have multiple 30-point games.

MARYLAND VS. IOWA SERIES HISTORY

LAST TIME THEY MET - FEBRUARY 11, 2026

COLLEGE PARK, MD. - Maryland knocked off No. 25 Iowa on Wednesday night 77-70 behind a career-high 24 points from Andre Mills. The Terps grabbed their first ranked win of the season — over the No. 21 NET squad — and moved to 10-14 (3-10 Big Ten) with their second straight Big Ten win. Maryland benefited from five double-digit scorers in a wire-to-wire game that featured 10 lead changes at XFINITY Center.

Mills continued his hot streak, scoring a career-high 24 points against Iowa. He's scored 10+ points in five of his last six games and was the first player on either team to reach double figures on Wednesday night and his 14 first-half points helped Maryland take a 37-32 lead into the half. The Terps improved to 7-1 this season when leading at the half.

Maryland knocked down eight three-pointers on Wednesday night, moving its season total to 202, which is already good for the 16th-highest single-season mark in program history. David Coit had two of them in his 19-point night, moving his season total to 62, which puts him tied for 20th in the Maryland single-season record book. Elijah Saunders hit a pair of three-pointers in his 12-point night.

Five Terps scored in double figures on Wednesday as Saunders tallied 12, Darius Adams had 11, and Solomon Washington dropped 10. Both had eight rebounds as the Terps outgained Iowa 34-25 on the boards in the win. Collin Metcalf had a big night defensively, posting a season-high eight rebounds and a season-high three blocks.

The Terps went on an 8-0 run in the second half to gain separation from the ranked Hawkeyes (18-6, 8-5 Big Ten). Big second-half performances from Coit (12 points) and Mills (10 points) helped clinch Maryland's second straight win. Maryland is back in action on the road against Rutgers on Feb. 15.

DIGGY, DIGGY, DIGGY CAN'T YOU SEE

- Diggy Coit has proven to be a walking bucket or as head coach Buzz Williams has said - "put up videogame numbers." Twice this season, he has scored 40-or-more points including a career-high and XFINITY Center all-time record 43 points against Penn State. That total was just one shy of matching Ernie Graham's 44 points against NC State in 1978 as the program's single-game scoring record.
- Coit also scored 41 against Mount St. Mary's this season. He is only the second player in program history to score 40-or-more points in a season alongside Gene Shue (1952-53).
- As part of his 43 points against Penn State, Coit tied the program and XFINITY Center records for single-game three pointers (alongside Mike Jones vs. UMKC, 12/13/06). His 15 three-point field goal attempts against Penn State tied Maryland's single-game record alongside Greivis Vasquez who was in attendance.
- Among active NCAA players, Coit is just the third to have multiple 40-point games joining Treysen Eaglestaff (2) of North Dakota and Dior Johnson (2) of Tarleton State. He is the only Big Ten player to have multiple 40-point games.
- Since 1996-97, he is one of 14 major conference players to have multiple 40 point games in a single season and the first since 2019-20.
- Coit is the first Big Ten player since Purdue's Carsen Edwards (3 in 2018-19) with multiple 40-point games in a season.

RARE MARYLAND 40-POINT EFFORTS

- Diggy Coit's career-high 43 points are tied for the second-most in a game in Maryland history (alongside Al Bunge in 1960). His 41 points against Mount St. Mary's are now tied as the fourth-most with Grevis Vasquez (at Virginia Tech, Feb. 27, 2010), Len Bias (at Duke, Jan. 25, 1986) and Gene Shue (vs. Washington & Lee, Feb. 12, 1953).
- The only player in Maryland history to record more points in a game are Ernie Graham with a school-record 44 vs. NC State on Dec. 20, 1978.

BUZZ WILLIAMS SIGNS NO. 3 RECRUITING CLASS IN THE NATION

- Head coach Buzz Williams announced on Nov. 20 the signing of Austin Brown (Lufkin, TX), Kaden House (Phoenix, AZ), Adama Tambedou (Senegal, Africa/ Springfield, MA), and Baba Oladotun (Silver Spring, MD)..
- The addition of the quartet gives Maryland the No. 3 ranked recruiting class in the country and makes Maryland one of seven programs over the last three years to have a top-25 player in each of those recruiting classes. The other six programs to have signed a top-25 player in each of the last three seasons: Arkansas, Baylor, Duke, Kansas, Miami, and North Carolina. In just his short time at Maryland, Williams has now signed three of the Terps top nine overall ranked recruits in the past 15 years.
- Brown is a 6-foot-8 power forward from Lufkin High School who is a composite four-star recruit and was the first commitment in the 2026 class. He is the No. 116 overall recruit in the class who also held offers from Iowa, Minnesota, SMU, and Texas A&M among others. In addition to his prep career at Lufkin, Brown also played for JL3 Elite, coached by Maryland alum and all-time great John Lucas, on the Nike EYBL AAU circuit. During his time at Lufkin, he was named the 2024 District 16-5A MVP as well as to the 2024 All-Region Team. He ranks third all-time in scoring at Lufkin with 1,853 career points heading into his senior season.
- "We've known Austin for some time now and have a long-lasting relationship with him and his family. He is a terrific fit for our style of play as well as a great culture fit," said Williams. "At 6-foot-8, he is a dynamic wing player who will be ready physically to compete in the Big Ten. Austin will be able to play a number of positions in our system and is a physical rebounder as well. His relationship with John Lucas has already introduced him to the history of Maryland and he's excited to be a part of that next chapter."
- House is a four-star combo guard from Compass Prep which plays on the EYBL circuit. He is a top-50 overall recruit in the 2026 class. Overall, he is the 247sports No. 37 player in the class. He is the son of former NBA player Eddie House who was a standout at Arizona State. The 6-foot-3 guard averaged 13.5 points last season to lead Compass Prep as well as 3.5 rebound and nearly three assists and three steals per game. House also held offers from Vanderbilt, TCU, LSU, and Michigan among others. His twin brother Kalek committed earlier in the year to Xavier. House began his prep career at Scottsdale Desert Mountain before transferring before his junior year to Compass Prep. Earlier this month, House was named to the 2025-26 Naismith Trophy Boys High School Player of the Year Watch List.
- "Kaden is someone who really wants to be a part of what we do as a program and how we develop not just players, but people. He is a downhill guard who can defend and score at the rim with a unique ability to draw and play through contact," said Williams. "Growing up with a father who was an NBA player gives him perspective on the processes needed to develop and the work it takes. The relationship he's built with us and the trust he has in how we structure our development of players was a major factor for him in his decision."
- Tambedou, who won a national championship title with Putnam Science Academy last season, is a four-star forward who ranks No. 108 nationally and No. 2 in the state of Connecticut. He also plays for the Rhode Island Elite AAU program on the Puma circuit where he averaged 15.6 points, 10.9 rebounds and 2.5 blocks through 14 games last season. He chose Maryland over Iowa State among others. Tambedou was a key piece of Putnam's fifth prep national championship title in the last seven years last season with the Mustangs posting a school record 41-2 overall record. He averaged 7.0 points, 6.0 rebounds, one block and one steal per game, while shooting 61 percent from the floor. Early this season, Tambedou has increased his productivity to 15 points and eight rebounds per game.
- "Adama has really developed into a strong, physical player who can stretch the floor. He is one who wants to work hard, develop, and be in a system that will maximize him as a player and a person," said Williams. "He's had a unique journey and path, but has found success in each turn and used his experiences to make him an exceptional young man. We think he'll add tremendously to our ability to space the floor, rebound, and score in a multitude of ways."
- Oladotun is a five-star wing from James Hubert Blake High School in Rockville. The Silver Spring native is the No. 10 overall recruit in the nation, the No. 1 prospect in Maryland, and the No. 3 ranked small forward. He is the second-highest rated recruit to sign with Maryland behind Diamond Stone (No. 8) and ahead of Derik Queen (No. 12), Jalen Smith (No. 15), and Darius Adams (No. 15). He chose Maryland over Arkansas, Georgetown, and Kentucky. The 6-foot-10 wing also played in AAU for Team Durant on the EYBL circuit. His father, Ibrahim, played at Virginia Tech from 1989-91 and professionally in England and Greece. Oladotun is the third five-star signee over the last three seasons joining Derik Queen (2024) and Darius Adams (2025). Originally, Oladotun was part of the 2027 high school class, but reclassified in August. He will turn 17 in December. Last season for Blake, he averaged 22.5 points per game, 7.3 rebounds, 3.0 assists, and 2.8 steals. Oladotun entered the 2025-26 season as a Max Preps Preseason All-America Second Team selection after earning Max Preps Sophomore All-America honors last season.
- "While Baba is relatively young for his age as a player compared to his peers, as a person he is wise beyond his years. That's not just a credit to how he has gone through his process, but to how his family has raised him and his siblings," said Williams. "He will be a terrific fit for our program in how he wants to grow as a player and a person. Baba has a high potential and will make an impact from the first day. His length, athleticism, and high basketball IQ make him one of the top players in the country. For him to continue his career close to his family, friends, and those who have supported his journey is incredibly special."

BARRY P. GOSSETT BASKETBALL PERFORMANCE CENTER OFFICIALLY OPENS

- The unveiling of the Barry P. Gossett Basketball Performance Center in September 2025 celebrated the opening of a state-of-the-art facility for Maryland's nationally prominent basketball programs.
- Maryland is one of only four institutions in history to have won NCAA championships in both men's and women's basketball. It is our vision that with the new Barry P. Gossett Basketball Performance Center, the university will continue its ascent in the Big Ten Conference and provide our teams with the infrastructure they need to continue striving for championships. This new center will help provide a transformative experience for our student-athletes, giving them an unmatched opportunity to become top collegiate basketball players.
- Located adjacent to the XFINITY Center, the new Barry P. Gossett Basketball Performance Center offers new and exciting amenities to the student-athletes, coaches and friends of Maryland Basketball, while creating a new landmark on the northern edge of the University of Maryland campus.
- One of the key assets of the facility is alleviating scheduling challenges that occured in the past between utilizing the XFINITY court and the Schanwald Pavilion court. With the new center in place, coaches have more flexibility to schedule practice sessions throughout the day, giving student-athletes more time for their studies and extracurricular activities.
- This dedicated space includes an expanded strength and conditioning center that is specifically tailored to the needs of basketball student-athletes as well as state-of-the-art meeting rooms for our dedicated coaches.
- These amenities give our basketball program a competitive edge in recruiting efforts and help attract the nation's top talent while positioning Maryland as a top-tier program. Our recruits now step inside a facility dedicated to their success and leave knowing they have the opportunity to be a part of a stellar intercollegiate athletic program.

GAMEDAY VIBES

- During gameday shoot-arounds, the Terps will traditionally vibe to The Commodores Pandora station.

BIRTHDAY SHENANIGANS

- On player or staff member's birthdays, Buzz Williams honors the occasion with an emoji-filled tweet that always includes a wrong number of birthdays for the celebrator.

TURKEYS & SOCKS

- In the team vernacular, a "turkey" is when an opponent is held scoreless on three straight possessions. When the team has posted consecutive stops, the bench calls out "turkey, turkey" to implore the five on the floor to get another stop.
- Taking charges on defense is valued by Terp Basketball, and the team rewards a charge taken by presenting a pair of socks to the charge taker from the special socks treasure chest.

CULTURE WALL

- After road game shoot-arounds, everyone on the trip gets on the court for a fun photo. If the Terps win, the photo will be posted on Williams' X and Instagram (@teamcoachbuzz) and added to the "Culture Wall" in the locker room.

READING IS FUN

- Buzz Williams is a voracious reader, generally completing 4-5 books every month. For the last 13 years, Williams has selected and gifted a book to every player, staff member and their family on the initial road trip of the season. Describing his commitment to reading, Williams has said, "Who you are today and who you will be five years from today are the people you meet and the books that you read. Regardless of the genre of book that you read, they say it's worth five years of experience."

QUOTE SHIRTS

- During the course of a season, Williams distributes 12 "Quote Shirts" to his players and staff that carry a life lesson or story behind its design for which the people within the men's basketball family can relate.

BEING THANKFUL

- A staple of every road trip under Buzz includes Thank You letters. Each coach/player/staff member on the trip writes a Thank You letter to someone in their life at the first team meal of the roadie.

BUZZ'S BUNCH

While Maryland is known for its traditions and rich history of success, head coach Buzz Williams has a tradition of his own with his program, Buzz's Bunch.

Buzz's Bunch is a program with a primary objective of helping children with special needs come together socially while hopefully falling in love with game of basketball. The camp opens the door to new friendships, unforgettable memories, and the powerful impact of connection through the sport of basketball!

Buzz's Bunch began in 2008 when Williams was the head coach at Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wisc., and it continued to flourish during his time in Blacksburg, Va., at Virginia Tech.

The completely free program held the annually on the first Saturday of August has blossomed into a community with more than 300 members across the nation, many of whom remain in close contact with Coach Buzz and many of the players.

Since he began the program, Williams has continued holding the events throughout his stops at Marquette, Virginia Tech, Texas A&M, and now Maryland.

Among the benefits of joining Buzz's Bunch are a pair of opportunities to interact with Coach Buzz, his staff, and members of the Maryland men's basketball team.

During the season, one non-conference home game will be designated as the Buzz's Bunch Game where members will receive free tickets and will have the opportunity to spend time with players and staff on the court before warm-ups.

For more information on Buzz's Bunch or how to get involved, email kayhack@umd.edu.

HEAD COACH BUZZ WILLIAMS

Oklahoma City '94 ▪ 1st Season At Maryland ▪ 19th As Head Coach

Buzz Williams was named the head coach of the Maryland Men's Basketball program on Wednesday, April 2, 2025. Williams has led his programs to 11 NCAA Tournament appearances and 13 20-win seasons in 18 years as a head coach.

Most recently, Williams served as the head coach for six seasons at Texas A&M from 2019-25, leading the Aggies to the NCAA Tournament in each of his last three seasons. He was named SEC Coach of the Year twice, in 2019-20 and 2022-23. Williams served as head coach at Virginia Tech (five years, 2014-19), Marquette (six years, 2008-14) and New Orleans (one year, 2006-07). His overall record after 18 seasons as a head coach is 373-228 (.621).

Williams has won at least 100 games at Marquette, Virginia Tech and Texas A&M. He is seeking to become just the third coach in Division I head coach to win at least 100 games at four different institutions, along with Maryland Hall of Fame coach Lefty Driesell (Davidson, Maryland, James Madison, Georgia State) and Steve Alford (Iowa, New Mexico, UCLA, Nevada).

In 2024-25, Williams led the Aggies to a 23-11 record as they advanced to the NCAA Tournament Second Round. A&M was ranked as high as No. 7 during the year.

Williams is one of 12 active Division I head coaches to win at least one NCAA Tournament game at three different programs. He's coached in 23 NCAA Tournament games, winning 12, both of which rank among the Top 25 among all Division I head coaches.

For his age (53) and his number of years as a head coach (18), Williams is the active leader in total victories and ranks No. 2 in NCAA Tournament games and NCAA Tournament victories.

His teams averaged nearly 21 wins per season for his career. Williams' teams have suffered just two losing conference records – his first season at Virginia Tech in 2014-15 and his second squad at Texas A&M in the COVID-19-marred 2020-21 season. With a 25-23 record on the road under Williams, Texas A&M has the second-highest road winning percentage among SEC teams since 2019-20 and are one of only four programs with winning road records in that span.

Over his last 17 seasons as a head coach, his teams have advanced to the postseason 13 times with 11 NCAA Tournament appearances and two NIT invitations, including four career NCAA Sweet 16 appearances (three at Marquette, one at Virginia Tech), one Elite Eight appearance (2013 Marquette) and one appearance in the NIT Championship game.

Entering his 32nd season as a college basketball coach, including 31 seasons at the Division I level, Williams' coaching history includes stints as an assistant, associate head coach and head coach. In addition to his head coaching stints at Texas A&M, Virginia Tech, Marquette and New Orleans, Williams served on staffs at Marquette (2007-08), Texas A&M (2004-06), Colorado State (2000-04), Northwestern State (1999-2000), Texas A&M-Kingsville (1998-99) and UT-Arlington (1994-98).

During his time as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M on Billy Gillispie's staff, Williams helped bring two nationally-ranked recruiting classes to the Aggies and was part of the basketball renaissance for the program. The 2004-05 team posted the top turnaround in the nation with a 14-game improvement from the previous year and posted the Aggies' first postseason victory in more than 20 years. In 2005-06, the Aggies posted 22 wins and earned their first trip to the NCAA tournament since 1980.

Williams has recruited and coached more than 20 players who have earned all-conference accolades, including two league Players of the Year, two conference Freshman of the Year and four Associated Press All-Americans. In 2023-24, Wade Taylor IV became the first Aggie to earn first-team All-SEC honors in consecutive seasons and Andersson Garcia received a spot on the league's All-Defensive Team.

HEAD COACH BUZZ WILLIAMS

Williams has coached, recruited or developed 16 NBA players over the course of his career, totaling over $400 million in total salaries and nearly 3,000 games played.

Brent Langdon Williams was born in Greenville, Texas and grew up in the small Texas town of Van Alstyne (population 4,369), which is located 50 miles north of Dallas, Texas. He is one of the few NCAA Division I head coaches that did not play college basketball. Instead, he was a student assistant at Navarro JC from 1990-92 and Oklahoma City University from 1992-94.

He received the nickname "Buzz" while working as an energetic student assistant for longtime Navarro College coach and mentor Lewis Orr. Williams was inducted into the Navarro College Bulldog Hall of Fame in 2021 as the school honored Williams' climb from "floor maintenance manager" to head coach.

Perhaps the most impactful initiative by Williams was the founding of "Buzz's Bunch," which connects young people with special needs to the game of basketball with an annual Buzz's Bunch game in the fall and a summer clinic. Originally founded during William's time in Milwaukee, Wisconsin at Marquette, Buzz's Bunch continued during his time in Blacksburg, Virginia at Virginia Tech and now at Texas A&M. Every player, coach and staff member has been lucky to develop a relationship, learn and grow from these children as Buzz's Bunch has grown to more than 500 members spanning all three cities.

As part of "Buzz's Bunch," the Williams family endowed scholarships at Virginia Tech and Texas A&M, which are awarded annually to students with a disability. Additionally, Williams' wife, Corey, helped endow a scholarship -- The Buzz and Corey Williams Family Student-Athlete Scholarship -- which is awarded to a female student-athlete at Virginia Tech.

Always seeking to connect to young people, Williams has guest-lectured for the School of Military Science (SOMS) class at Texas A&M the past two fall semesters and he co-taught Sports Management (SPMT) class in the fall of 2024. His lectures for SOMS 380, originating from the Rudder Forum inside the historic Rudder Theatre Complex, featured topics such as "Learning How You Learn," "Leading Through Change," "The Birthday Paradox," The Principal-Agent Problem" and "Never Assume Anything." Williams also taught similar classes at Virginia Tech.

Williams is married to the former Corey Norman and the couple have two daughters, Zera and Addyson, and two sons, Calvin and Mason. He earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Oklahoma City University in 1994 before completing his master's work in the same field at Texas A&M-Kingsville in 1999.
