ERIC MUSSELMAN

HEAD COACH • SECOND YEAR

Eric Musselman has over 30 years of coaching experience, including 10 years as a collegiate head coach. As one of the winningest active coaches in college basketball, Musselman is ready for his second season with USC Men's Basketball, bringing in one of the best transfer portal classes in the nation and some of the most elite freshmen to build this year's roster.

He took the role with the Trojans on April 5, 2024, creating a team from scratch with only one player from the previous team returning to the roster. With this new team built in the famous Portal House, Musselman and his staff were ready for their first season in the Big Ten. He led the Trojans to key victories, including a win in Galen over No. 7 Michigan State and on the road over No. 13 Illinois. Along with that, the Trojans took down Rutgers in a double-overtime thriller in the first round of the Big Ten Championships before falling in a tight contest to Purdue. USC went on to compete in the inaugural College Basketball Crown, taking down Tulane in the first round before falling to Villanova in a close 62-61 game. To add to those successes, he coached his first All-Big Ten honoree in Desmond Claude, who finished with honorable mention honors, and developed one of the best freshmen in the Big Ten in Wesley Yates III. Off the court, the team had the best GPA in program history, boasting a 3.264 GPA during that season.

Prior to USC, Musselman was the head coach at the University of Arkansas. In his five seasons with the Razorbacks, Musselman kept a record of 111-59 while making back-to-back Elite Eight appearances and three-straight Sweet Sixteen appearances for the first time since the mid-1990s. These winning seasons were bolstered by the talent Musselman brought into Arkansas. He had two seasons with the Top Five recruiting classes with the likes of Moses Moody, Anthony Black and Nick Smith Jr., with all three of those players being selected in the First Round of the NBA Draft. He also coached the 2020 SEC Co-Player of the Year and All-American Mason Jones along with two other All-Americans in Moody and JD Notae.

Before making his way to Fayetteville, Musselman began his collegiate head coaching career at the University of Nevada, where he led the Wolf Pack for four seasons to a 110-34 record. He won the CBI title in his first year before going to three-straight NCAA Tournaments after that, including a Sweet Sixteen run in 2018. In his first year with the program, Musselman created a new culture for the program, making the sixth-most improved program in the NCAA after their CBI win. He topped that off with the NCAA Tournament run in 2018 that earned him numerous Coach of the Year honors. Adding to that, Musselman also coached the Wolf Pack into the AP Top 25, staying in the Top 10 for 16 consecutive weeks. He also developed phenomenal talent, including two-time All-American and Mountain West Player of the Year Caleb Martin. Over those four seasons, 13 of his players earned All-Mountain West honors.

Over his 10 years as a head coach, Musselman produced four All-Americans, two conference Player of the Year honorees, three Sixth Man of the Year recipients, and 21 All-Conference players.

NEUTRAL COURT, NO PROBLEM

This season, USC is undefeated when playing on a neutral court. They grabbed their first neutral site win against Illinois State at the Intuit Dome, before winning the Maui Invitational by winning three-straight games in Hawai'i.

ROAD WARRIORS

USC has racked up frequent flyer miles with its road schedule this season. After the Big Ten Championships, the Trojans will have logged 23,936.8 flight miles across 11 states.

Additionally, USC is the only Big Ten and Power-4 team to take a three-game road trip in conference play this season. The Trojans embarked on a 10-day swing to take on Michigan, Michigan State and Minnesota to begin the new year.

Despite the travel, USC has been racking up road wins this season. The Trojans are 9-6 away from the Galen Center, and their nine road and neutral site wins are the fifth-most in the Big Ten (Michigan leads the way with 14, while Purdue has 11 and Michigan State and Illinois have 10).

ARENAS ACTIVATED

Alijah Arenas has made his official debut with the Trojans, playing his first game for the Cardinal and Gold against Northwestern on Wednesday, Jan. 21. Since then, he has averaged 14.8 points per game — the second-most on the team — with four 20-point games.

So far, he is the only Trojan to earn a Big Ten weekly award. He was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week award on Feb. 9 after setting multiple career highs with 29 points and six rebounds against Indiana, then leading the team with 24 points, including the game-winning layup, against Penn State.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Alijah Arenas' 29-point night against Indiana matched his father Gilbert's freshman-year single-game high of 29 points. Gilbert, who starred at the University of Arizona from 1999-2001, scored 29 points against Arizona State on Feb. 6, 2000. Alijah was one point shy of matching Gilbert's career high of 30 points, which he set against UCLA on Feb. 15, 2001.

INJURY UPDATE

USC has been hit with the injury bug this year. Guard Rodney Rice is out for the season following his shoulder surgery, while forward Amarion Dickerson is sidelined for three to four months with a hip injury. Jordan Marsh missed three games with a turf toe injury but returned against Indiana on Feb. 3. Alijah Arenas is back on the court after missing the first 18 games due to a knee injury.

According to EvanMiya.com, USC is the most injured team in the nation in production lost to injury.

SHARING THE WEALTH

Over the last 30 games, USC has had nine different players lead the team in scoring. Alijah Arenas has either led or tied the team in scoring over the last three games.

UNDER PRESSURE

USC is 7-2 in one-possession games and 2-0 in overtime games. The Trojans' seven one-possession wins lead the Big Ten over Nebraska, which has four, and Rutgers, which has three.

AUSAR IS BORN

Ezra Ausar has been a staple on offense for USC this season and has made his mark at the charity stripe. His 231 free-throw attempts rank 19th in the nation, plus he ranks 22nd with 6.9 fouls drawn per 40 minutes and fifth in free-throw rate. So far, his 231 free throw attempts and 156 made free throws rank fourth and sixth, respectively, for a single season in USC history.

Ausar is also the most efficient high-usage Trojan from the field, shooting at a 58.2% clip. Of those shots, 90.6 of them are taken either around the rim or in the paint. He also ranks in the 91st percentile or better in fast break points per 40 minutes (3.4), paint points per 40 minutes (12.5), personal fouls drawn per 40 minutes (7.3), and points per 40 minutes (19.9) according to CBB Analytics.

COFIE TIME

Jacob Cofie is one of two Trojans who have started all 30 games. His five double-doubles are tied with Ezra Ausar for the most on the team, as they both rank 13th in the Big Ten in this category.

Over the last 10 games, Cofie has averaged 10.2 points and 5.7 rebounds — including 2.2 offensive rebounds per game — and 1.8 blocks per game.

During a three-game stretch from Jan. 17-25, Cofie became the first Trojan to have 10 or more rebounds in three consecutive games since Isaiah Mobley did so from Dec. 7-15.

OUT OF THE WOODS

Graduate transfer guard Kam Woods signed with USC on Dec. 18, 2025, giving the Trojans much-needed backcourt depth. The journeyman point guard comes to USC from Robert Morris, where he and Amarion Dickerson helped the Colonels reach the NCAA Tournament. Prior to that, he played for NC State, North Carolina A&T, Northwest Florida State College and Troy.

Woods has set two single-game career highs as a Trojan: He scored a career-high 33 points against Iowa on Jan. 28 and tied his career high with 11 assists against UCLA on March 7. Over the last 10 games, Woods has averaged 9.4 points, 4.7 rebounds, 5.1 assists and 1.6 steals per game.

JUMP JUMP JUMP

USC has been in charge of the jump ball this season. The Trojans are currently 24-7 in winning the jump ball.

IN THE PAINT

USC has made a name for itself by putting up shots in the paint. The Trojans have shot 50.3% of their shots from the paint or around the rim, accounting for 63.6% of the team's made baskets.

DISHING IT OUT

USC has done well sharing the basketball this season. They boast a two-point assist percentage of 49.6%, which ranks in the 95th percentile according to CBB Analytics. They also dish the ball out at the rim, assisting on 56.7% of those shots, which is in the 97th percentile according to CBB Analytics.

DEFENDING THE ARC

USC is one of the best teams at defending from beyond the arc. They are 30th in the BartTorvik.com rankings in this category, holding their opponents to 30.6% from that range. This stat ranks in the 92nd percentile on CBB Analytics.

LAST TIME OUT

On senior night against UCLA on March 7, the second game of the Crosstown Rivalry series was tied at 21 with nine minutes to go in the first half, but UCLA went on a decisive 14-2 run and didn't look back. UCLA led by as many as 25 points and connected on 50% of its field goals in both halves.

Alijah Arenas worked to rally the troops by scoring 13 of his 20 points in the second half, while Ezra Ausar recorded his fifth double-double of the season with 12 points and 11 rebounds. Jacob Cofie finished with 10 points, while Kam Woods tied his career-high with 11 assists to go along with six points.

AGAINST WASHINGTON THIS SEASON

Washington will be the first team USC has played three times in a season since playing Arizona in the 2023-24 season.

The Huskies won both matchups in the regular season thanks to strong second halves. In the first game in the Galen Center, Washington erased an 18-point deficit to win 84-76 and hand the Trojans their first loss of the season. Three Trojans scored in double figures, including Jordan Marsh, who had a breakout game with 17 points off the bench.

During the most recent meeting in Seattle, the Trojans had a three-point halftime lead, but the Huskies flipped the script by outscoring the Trojans 51-29 in the second half. Washington had an edge in nearly every statistical category: Thanks to 24 rebounds from Hannes Steinbach, the Huskies outrebounded the Trojans 46-37. USC committed 12 turnovers to Washington's 11, and the Huskies connected on 48.1% of their field goals to the Trojans' 37.5% clip.

Alijah Arenas led USC with 19 points and was one of four Trojans in double figures. Ezra Ausar had a 17-point, 11-rebound double-double, Jacob Cofie finished with 14 points, and Jordan Marsh chipped in 14 points off the bench.

Washington is responsible for two of the top three single-game rebounding totals against the Trojans this season. In those matchups, the Huskies averaged 43.0 rebounds per game compared to the Trojans' average of 31.0 rebounds per game.

NEW HEIGHTS

USC has one of the tallest teams in basketball this year. When looking at average height compared with minutes played, USC has the sixth-tallest roster according to KenPom.

1,000-POINT CLUB

This season has opportunities for more Trojans to hit 1,000 career points. Currently, three Trojans have reached that milestone: Ezra Ausar, Ryan Cornish and Kam Woods.

After scoring 603 points last season, Jordan Marsh is getting closer to accomplishing that feat, as he currently has 992. Terrance Williams II is also within 100 points of hitting that goal, as he also has 910 career points.

With 913 career points, Jaden Brownell is also getting close to the 1,000-point milestone.

BLOCK PARTY

USC is one of the best shot-blocking teams in the country. Currently, the Trojans are eighth in the nation, averaging 5.6 blocks per game. Jacob Cofie is a huge piece to that as he has registered at least one block in all but three games this season. He is averaging 1.70 blocks per game.

WHISTLE WARRIORS

USC has been great at drawing fouls this season. They average 20.3 fouls drawn per 40 minutes, which is in the 98th percentile according to CBB Analytics. They are 15th in the NCAA and first in the Big Ten in made free throws per game (19.1) and 10th in attempts per game (26.3). The Trojans are also averaging 10.2 shooting fouls drawn per 40 minutes and 1.9 offensive fouls drawn per 40 minutes, both of which are in the 97th percentile or better.

STAR POWER

USC has 10 players who started in at least 20 games in their careers so far: Rodney Rice, Ezra Ausar, Amarion Dickerson, Terrance Williams II, Jordan Marsh, Jacob Cofie, Ryan Cornish, EJ Neal Jr., Kam Woods and Jaden Brownell. Combined, that group of players has 531 career starts.

WINNING WAYS

USC has compiled a record of 1,747-1,293 in its 119 years of intercollegiate basketball competition. USC has had a .500 or better record in 83 of its 119 seasons.

CAREER RANKINGS

Among active career leaders in the NCAA, USC has numerous players who are making their mark. USC has two of the top 10 players in career blocked shot average. Gabe Dynes is fifth, averaging approximately 2.17 blocks per game. He is also seventh in total blocked shots with 195. Amarion Dickerson comes in at 11th, averaging 2.07 blocked shots per game.

Along with those two, Terrance Williams II's 152 career games are the 12th-most in the nation.

AND ONE

USC has been drawing a lot of and-one fouls this season. Currently, they are averaging 2.4 and-ones per 40 minutes, which ranks in the 97th percentile according to CBB Analytics. Additionally, 15.7% of USC's shots result in a shooting foul, which is in the 98th percentile.

ATLANTIC TO PACIFIC

USC's team is made up of players from all over the country. There are five players from California in Alijah Arenas, EJ Neal Jr., Patrick O'Brien, Jonah Goorin, and Brit Burden. Along with that, there are three players from Maryland in Ryan Cornish, Rodney Rice and Terrance Williams II, and two players from Ohio in Jerry Easter II and Amarion Dickerson.

There is also one player from Washington (Jacob Cofie), Georgia (Ezra Ausar), Utah (Jaden Brownell), Kentucky (Gabe Dynes), Alabama (Kam Woods) and North Carolina (Jordan Marsh).

MUSSELMAN IN YEAR TWO

Coach Musselman has proven himself as a winner in his second season at his last two colleges. At both Nevada and Arkansas, Musselman has accumulated a 53-14 record, which comes out to a .791-win percentage in that time. Both teams made the NCAA Tournament in their second seasons.

PHYSICAL PLAY
Coach Musselman takes pride in recruiting physical players. This has led to him having seven former football players on his team.

SMARTIES
USC finished the fall semester with one of the best academic performances in program history. They broke the record for the highest cumulative GPA, earning a 3.319 as a team. Not only that, but all players on the roster finished with a GPA above 3.0.

IN THE COMMUNITY
The team has done numerous community service events this summer. Most recently, the Trojans distributed toys to children at the Barack Obama Charter School in partnership with World Vision. The team also helped at Clayton Kershaw's Back-to-School Bash, playing wheelchair basketball at Angel City Sports, volunteering at the LA Food Bank, and participating in a Juneteenth event with Empowerment Congress.

FUTURE TROJANS ON THE RISE
ESPN rated USC's 2026 recruiting class ninth in the nation in early December. Five-star center and ESPN's No. 10 recruit Adonis Ratliff and his twin brother, four-star recruit Darius Ratliff, highlight the Trojans' recruiting class so far. The twins are sons of Theo Ratliff, a former NBA All-Star who enjoyed a 16-year professional career.

Both Adonis and Darius have been selected for the McDonald's All-American game, becoming the 14th and 15th Trojans to be named as McDonald's All-Americans. USC was one of three schools with multiple players on the McDonald's All-American game rosters (the others were Duke and Missouri). Adonis and Darius were also selected for the Iverson Classic All-American game. If that wasn't enough, the twins also helped Archbishop Stepinac to its fourth straight CHSSA title.

In early March, ESPN put Adonis at 14th and Darius at 29th in the latest edition of its top 100 class of 2026 rankings.

DEVELOPING THE FUTURE OF THE NBA
With the signing of Adonis Ratliff and Darius Ratliff, USC has its third-straight recruiting class where the son of a former NBA player has joined the team. This tradition includes Bronny James (son of Lebron James), Alijah Arenas (son of Gilbert Arenas), and now Adonis and Darius Ratliff (sons of Theo Ratliff). DJ Rodman is also a part of this group, as he came to USC as a graduate student and is the son of Dennis Rodman.

COACHING STAFF FROM THE NBA
Every member of the USC Men's Basketball coaching staff has experience either coaching or playing in the NBA. Coach Eric Musselman spent 20 years in the coaching ranks from the NBA to the Development League, while also coaching the Venezuelan and Dominican Republic National Teams. Both Earl Boykins and Will Conroy played in the NBA. Along with that, Todd Lee and Anthony Ruta have coaching experience in the NBA Developmental League.

BIG TEN IN THE AP RANKINGS
The Big Ten is well represented in this week's AP Top 25 Men's College Basketball Poll. The highest-ranked team is Michigan, coming in at No. 3. Five other Big Ten teams are in the top 25: No. 8 Michigan State, No. 9 Illinois, No. 11 Nebraska, No. 18 Purdue and No. 23 Wisconsin. UCLA and Ohio State also received votes in the latest poll.

TROJANS IN THE NBA
USC has 10 former players competing in the NBA this season:

- Isaiah Collier, Utah Jazz
- DeMar DeRozan, Sacramento Kings
- Bronny James, Los Angeles Lakers
- Jordan McLaughlin, San Antonio Spurs
- De'Anthony Melton, Golden State Warriors
- Evan Mobley, Cleveland Cavaliers
- Onyeka Okongwu, Atlanta Hawks
- Kevin Porter Jr, Milwaukee Bucks
- Nikola Vucevic, Boston Celtics
- Taj Gibson, Memphis Grizzlies

This group has the fourth-best in production through March 5, according to Deeg Sports.

SCOUTING THE HUSKIES

- Hannes Steinbach's 20 double-doubles this season are the most from a Big Ten freshman since 1997, as well as tied for second in the NCAA. His averages of 18.6 points and 11.6 rebounds per game pace all Huskies, along with shooting a team-high 58% from the floor.
- Steinbach also leads the Big Ten in all rebounding efforts, including offensive rebounds (3.9) and defensive rebounds (7.2) per game.
- In its last game, Washington dropped 85-79 to Oregon on March 11. In the loss, the Huskies attempted a comeback on a late 29-8 run, and Steinbach recorded his fourth straight double-double.
- Zoom Diallo registers over 15 points per game and 4 assists per game.
- Franck Kepnang's 2.1 blocks per game rank third in the conference. He's racked up 56 blocks during this season.
- Former Trojan Wesley Yates III is putting up numbers for the Huskies, averaging nearly 13 points per game.
- Washington is 1-1 at neutral sites.
- The Huskies have been shooting a .459 field-goal mark and hold a 4.4 rebounding margin over their opponents.
- Washington has the lowest three-point percentage in the Big Ten, landing 31% of its shots from beyond the arc.
- The last outing between the Huskies and the Trojans was on March 4. USC was outscored 54-32 in the paint and lost the rebounding battle 46-37. Steinbach had 22 points and 24 rebounds in the game.
